Born Lou Ann Kehaulani Yee, and raised in Kapahulu, Waikiki, and Aiea on the island of Oahu, my parents are the late Wilfred (Lyman) Yee and Loretta Whaley (Yee, Robello) Apa. A graduate of Kamehameha Schools Class of 1973, I have attended Hilo Community College, University of Hawaii at Hilo, and Hilo School of Massage. Married to Richard Jones since 1978, we have four children; Kaeo, Kanoa, Ikaika, Leialoha, and one hanai son, Kolekona Kamehaiku.

I have been a community advocate for over 20 years, and volunteered countless hours creating and developing programs to meet the unique needs of the Pahoa Schools and community. For the past year, I have been implementing adults-mentoring-youth programs at Pahoa complex high schools and developing a shoreline maintenance program at Pohoiki beach. I also facilitate the 4th –grade Ho’ike, a cultural immersion day at Koenepoko and Pahoa Elementary schools.

Currently, I’m a volunteer Kupuna at Pahoa High & Intermediate School (PHIS) and a community representative on the PHIS-School-Community-Council (SCC). I have also served in numerous capacities such as Parent-Community Networking Coordinator for PHIS, County’s Puna Parks Committee, Geothermal Ad Hoc Committee, Environmental Management Commission, Native Hawaiian Education Island Council, Hawaii Amateur Surfing Association, Hawaii Academy of Arts & Science (HAAS) School Board, Neighborhood place of Puna Advisory Board, and Alu Like Summer Youth Employment Supervisor.

I have the Ability, the integrity, and the commitment to serve my community “with aloha” as a Puna Representative in the State Legislature.
